Nominating and Governance Committee
Policy Regarding Qualifications of Directors

The Nominating and Governance Committee (the “Committee”) of Intercept Pharmaceuticals, Inc. (the “Corporation”) believes that members of the Corporation’s Board of Directors (the “Board”) must possess certain basic personal and professional qualities in order to properly discharge their fiduciary duties to stockholders, provide effective oversight of the management of the Corporation and monitor the Corporation’s adherence to principles of sound corporate governance. It is therefore the policy of the Committee that all persons nominated to serve as a director of the Corporation should possess at least the minimum qualifications described in this Policy. These are only threshold criteria, however, and the Committee will also consider the contributions that a candidate can be expected to make to the collective functioning of the Board based upon the totality of his or her credentials, experience and expertise, the composition of the Board at the time and other relevant circumstances, including the operating requirements of the Corporation and the long-term interests of stockholders. This Policy may be modified by the Committee from time to time.

1. Integrity and Ethical Values. Candidates should possess the highest personal and professional standards of integrity and ethical values.
2. Commitment. Candidates must be committed to promoting and enhancing the long-term value of the Corporation for its stockholders.
3. Absence of Conflicts of Interest. Candidates should not have any interests that would materially impair his or her ability to (i) exercise independent judgment, or (ii) otherwise discharge the fiduciary duties owed as a director to the Corporation and its stockholders.
4. Fair and Equal Representation. Candidates must be able to represent fairly and equally all stockholders of the Corporation without favoring or advancing any particular stockholder or other constituency of the Corporation.
5. Achievement. Candidates must have demonstrated achievement in one or more fields of business, professional, governmental, community, scientific or educational endeavor, and possess mature and objective business judgment and expertise.
6. Oversight. Candidates are expected to have sound judgment, derived from management or policy-making experience (which may be as an advisor or consultant), that demonstrates an ability to function effectively in an oversight role.
7. Diversity. The Committee will consider the diversity of the Board in identifying and considering nominees for director, and will strive where appropriate to achieve a diverse balance of backgrounds, perspectives, experience, age, gender and ethnicity on the Board and its committees.
8. Business Understanding. Candidates must have a general appreciation regarding major issues facing public companies of a size and operational scope similar to the Corporation. These include:
 - contemporary governance concerns;
 - regulatory obligations of a public issuer;
 - strategic business planning;

- basic concepts of corporate accounting and finance.
9. Available Time. Candidates must have, and be prepared to devote, adequate time to the Board and its committees. It is expected that each candidate will be able to arrange their business and professional commitments, including service on the boards of other companies and organizations, so that they are available to attend the meetings of the Corporation's Board and any committees on which they serve, as well as the Corporation's annual meeting of stockholders.
 10. Director Tenure. The Committee does not endorse arbitrary term limits on a director's service, nor does it believe in automatic re-nomination.
 11. Limited Exceptions. Under exceptional and limited circumstances, the Committee may approve the candidacy of a nominee who does not satisfy all of these requirements if it believes the service of such nominee is in the best interests of the Corporation and its stockholders.
 12. Additional Qualifications. In approving candidates to be recommended for election as director, the Committee will also ensure that:
 - at least a majority of the directors serving at any time on the Board are independent, as defined under the rules of The Nasdaq Stock Market LLC ("Nasdaq");
