Message from David Ford About Benefits

Dear All,

We've received a number of questions in the last 48 hours regarding the impact of the acquisition of Intercept by Alfasigma on employee benefits, particularly health benefits for 2024.

We will be continuing to provide employee health benefits for 2024 and do not plan any changes to our health benefit plan designs and vendors for next year. Consistent with standard practice in past years, we will be moving forward with our plans for open enrollment for 2024, as normal in the first half of November.

You will see more detailed communications on this in the coming weeks, but we wanted to be clear on the direction we are taking with benefits now, due to the importance of this for our people and their families.

If you have any questions on benefits, please reach out to a member of the HR team.

David Ford
Chief Human Resources Officer
